

Erin Milbeck Wilcox

I am passionate about connecting people with objects to create memorable and impactful educational experiences. My areas of expertise include audience research and evaluation, museum education and public programming. I have more than 7 years of experience working with museums and aquariums.

CONTACT

✉ emilbeckwilcox@gmail.com

📞 313.212.9199

📍 355 I St SW Apt 620
Washington, DC 20024

💻 emwilcox.com

EDUCATION

Master of Arts

University of Washington, Seattle, WA
June 2010

Museology Program

Focus: Public Programming, Education, Audience Research

Thesis: Trivial Pursuits? A Summative Evaluation of Trivia Night Public Programs

Bachelor of Arts

Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, MI
Graduated Cum Laude
June 2008

Major: Art History

Minor: French Language (fluent in speech and writing)

Focus: Spanish Language (proficient in speech and writing)

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Associate

Randi Korn & Associates, Alexandria, VA
(August 2016 to present)

- Consult on evaluation project design for formative and summative studies
- Develop qualitative and quantitative instruments: experience with in-person and telephone interviews, online and in-person surveys, timing and tracking, behavioral observation, usability testing
- Collect, organize, and analyze data: experience with Excel and SPSS
- Train and manage temporary data collectors
- Write reports and design data visualizations
- Converse directly with clients on project progress

Independent Evaluation Consultant

Detroit, MI and Washington, DC
(Summer 2011 to January 2014, February 2016 to July 2016)

Clients include: Detroit Institute of Arts, Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History, Randi Korn & Associates, Inc., Uncommon Classrooms, AISL

- Designed evaluation projects and instruments
- Collected and analyzed data
- Wrote reports and presented findings to clients

Research Analyst

Audience Viewpoints Consulting, Washington, DC
(January 2014 to February 2016)

- Consulted on evaluation project design and instruments
- Collected and analyzed qualitative and quantitative data
- Wrote reports and designed visual summaries
- Presented findings to clients
- Managed freelance data collectors

Education Specialist

The Henry Ford, Dearborn, MI
(July 2010 to October 2013)

- Facilitated curriculum writing for history lesson plans
- Designed, conducted, analyzed, and presented evaluation projects
- Consulted on content for permanent exhibitions
- Planned and executed teacher professional development workshops

New Directions Research Associate

New Directions Project, Seattle, WA
(Winter 2009-June 2010)

- Consulted with local institutions in strategic planning and project evaluation
- Presented findings through statistical analysis data visualization